LIHUE NEW YEARS

Lihue, Kauai, Jan. 8.—New Year's Eve saw one of the most charming entertainments that have taken place in this district for years. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Payne had invited a number of friends to take the last meal in 1905 in their company, and it goes without saying that none missed the opportunity to enjoy such well known hospitality.

An epicurean dinner amid flowers and lights to the accompaniment of Hawaiian music was followed by games and entertainments until the midnight hour ended. As the fateful hour showed that the old year had sunk into the past, the whole garden burst into light. Every tree seemed illumined and throwing its surplus effulgence over the whole place. Then came the exchanges of wishes for the coming year hushed only by the deafening salutes. After another couple of hours' pleasant sociability the guests bade their hostess a regretful good-night and hurried home before the sun could catch them.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay, Dr. and Mrs. Sandow, Mr. and Mrs. Arendt, Mr. and Mrs. E. Omsted, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlum, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, Miss E. Faye, Miss Abbott, Mr. Hime, Mr. Brodie, Mr. Gerner, Mr. Kutz, Mr. Fries and host and hostess.
